

West Michigan year 'round agri-tourism opportunities!

In the spring, savor fresh asparagus from local farm markets.

As spring turns to summer, visit a local u-pick farm for tart cherries or sweet blueberries.

As the leaves start to change colors,
visit an orchard for hayrides,
crisp apples and cider.

On a snowy winter morning, use fresh Michigan maple syrup to accompany your weekend pancake breakfast.

800-442-2084 • WMTA.org
where to go, what to do and where to stay

Fresh. Local. Ready!

Your guide to West Michigan
Specialty Crops

Visit the Agri-tourism section of wmta.org for:

- Find Specialty crops or farm markets you want to visit
- Advanced search options by city, area or region
- Sign up for give-a-ways featuring the agri-tourism members for all your plans on where to go, what to do and where to stay!

WMTA.org

Fresh. Local. Ready!

For extended listings of growing seasons visit wmta.org agri-tourism section

WEST MICHIGAN GROWING SEASONS

CROP MONTH harvest times vary by areas

	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
Apples
Asparagus
Beets
Blueberries
Bok Choy
Cabbage
Cantaloupe
Carrots
Celery Cabbage
Cherries
Cilantro
Grapes
Cucumbers
Dill
Eggplant
Gourds
Grape Tomatoes
Green Beans
Green Onion
Green Peppers
Greens
Hot Peppers
Indian Corn
Kolrabi
Leaf Lettuce
Leeks
Mini Pumpkins
Napa Cabbage
Onions
Parsley
Peaches
Pickles
Potatoes
Pumpkins
Radishes
Raspberries
Roma Tomatoes
Strawberries
Sweet Corn
Turnips
Vine Ripe Tomatoes
Watermelon
Winter Squash
Zucchini/Summer Squash

SOURCE: MICHIGAN DEPT OF AGRICULTURE